- Isaiah 7:14

synopsis:

“A Child is Born” tells the Christmas story in a way that captures the joy, wonder, and awe surrounding the birth of Jesus. This vignette reminds us of how God entered this world and why He did. For our King was born into this world not to be served, but to serve and give His life as a ransom for all.

Christmas truly is a time to celebrate Jesus Christ and his birth and reflect upon the life He surrendered . . . for you.

discussion questions:

- The first days of Jesus’ life were spent in humble surroundings. What are some other examples of the humble life that Jesus lived?
- Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be called Immanuel, which means “God with us”. What does this say about Jesus’ purpose, and in what ways have you experienced this facet of his character?
- Upon receiving the news of the Savior’s birth, the shepherds came to worship and the wise men brought sacrificial gifts. How do you respond daily to the gift of Jesus Christ?
